A Community Dialogue: Dignity of Risk & Self Determination

Tuesday, February 13, 2018

11:00 am - 1:00 pm

ATI Community Room

** A light lunch will be provided. ****

Featuring:

Laurie Pferr, Deputy Director, NYS Office for the Aging

Liz Haskins, Director, Cortland Area Agency on Aging

This community dialogue will discuss information, issues, and challenges related to providing long term care services in Cortland County. Facilitators will address the right of every individual to have options for living in the most integrated setting that meets their needs for health, safety, and quality of life. Dignity of risk means respecting an individual's right to have control over their decisions. This includes their healthcare, where to live, and the ability to participate in the full range of human experiences, including success and failure.

Please RSVP by February 6, 2018.
